Air Board Studies New Bid For Aid

May Ask $45,000 in
U. S. Funds to Provide
Local Research Staff

Stepped up operations for the local air pollution control board may result from a $200,000 study presented to the city's clean air board last night. It is hoped that grants of federal funds totaling $45,000 over a period of three years will be available for a research staff.

Refusal by the state board to grant enforcement authority to the local board to qualify for federal aid may be bypassed if the city can prove it has a unique air pollution situation that requires research with a part-time and full-time staff to determine the cause.

Prof. Erwin Hoelscher of Washington University, the city's part-time air pollution technical secretary, told board members he believes the city's problem will draw federal attention since there are parallels in the air which never have been traced to a source.

"In the past six years, we have been able to secure compliance by nearly every industrial plant to meet the state standards," he said. "The research stations show only a 13% improvement in the particulate emission, and we top the state set goals by a staggering amount even now."

Problems Without Remedy
The professor added that he made inspections for Tuesday's snowfall and found no indication of particulates around industrial plants in the city limits. He said the research grant could possibly include a study of the problems entailed by coke ovens, furnace plants for which no remedies have yet been found.

Availability of such federal funds could result in enlargement of the air pollution control staff here—now comprised of a part-time technical secretary and an office secretary—drawn from another city hall office as needed.

The availability of research funds was brought up by Dr. (Continued on page 8, col. 7)

Marion Groshong,
61, Venice Park
Supt., Succumbs

Venice Park Supt. Marion Groshong, 61, of 1231 Klein street, a lifelong resident of Venice, and well-known for his work in community and civic organizations, died of cancer at 5:10 a.m. Wednesday at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis. He had been ill for several months.

He had been employed as auditor for the city-owned McKinley Bridge for the last five years, and prior to that time was an employee of General Steel Industries for 25 years as a time study engineer.

Mr. Groshong had been a member of the Venice Methodist Church since 1915. A past member of the Calverton Mounds Boy Scout Council, Mr. Groshong was a former scoutmaster, a member of the Venice Lions Club, a Past Vice President of the Venice Club of Venice, an executive member of the Homecoming Association of Venice, the Madison County Republican party, and the Madison County TB Association, and a member of the Madison County Housing Authority.

Interested in politics, Mr. Groshong, at the time of his death, was chairman of Venice Precinct Committee for the Republican party, and was a member of the Venice Chapter of the Venice Chapter of the Madison County Housing Authority.

At that time, the supervisor said, agency representatives said HUD was interested in large, overall projects in the Venice area, but not in a small area like Venice.

Seek Grant To Study Area-Wide Sewer Plan

County Sponsors Move
For Project in Four
Quad-City Townships

Application for a federal grant of $50,000 to finance a study of the feasibility of building a joint sewer system to serve Granite City, Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships will be filed soon, probably within the next month, Harry Briggs, supervisor of Nameoki township, told the county board of supervisors yesterday.

Briggs, chairman of a special county board committee which expects to eventually initiate feasibility studies of sewage disposal systems in many unsewered sections of Madison county, said the application will be filed with the Housing and Urban Development Agency. Other members of the committee are Nelson Hagmann, supervisor of Granite City township, and Walter Sparks, supervisor of Chouteau township.

Later Briggs explained that the plan to study the potential of a large sewer system will be sponsored by the county. If a grant is obtained for the Quad-City area study, the supervisor said, similar agreements will be sought to determine the feasibility of building major sewer systems in several other combined areas of the county which do not now have proper sewer service.

Suggested by HUD
Briggs, who also is chairman of the county board's Legislative committee, said the proposal to study the Granite City-Venice-Nameoki-Chouteau area was conceived after he conferred in Chicago with HUD officials regarding a potential grant for construction of sewer lines in State Park place.

At that time, the supervisor said, agency representatives said HUD was interested in large, overall projects in the Venice area, but not in a small area like Venice.

Women Surprise Burglars In 2 Separate Break-Ins

Two women residents of the area encountered burglars in two separate break-ins Monday. In the first, a woman named Jane Yount, 4277 Breckenridge, reported to sheriff's deputies last night that she apparently frightened a burglar who had gained entry to the house while she was in the kitchen and that the man fled through the front door.

She told deputies that she had been ironing in the kitchen when she heard a noise in the front part of the house about 9:30 p.m. She said she went into the living room and saw a man walking toward a bedroom. When he saw her, he turned and ran from the house, deputies reported. Nothing was taken.

A white gold dinner ring with three diamonds and a loop of smaller diamonds, valued at $600, was reported missing from the home of Mrs. Margie Jordan, 2655 Cleveland blvd., Monday afternoon.

Madison Adopts Controls For New Traffic Signals

Ordinances for vehicular and pedestrian control at recently installed electric traffic signals at Sixth street and McCambridge avenue were adopted by the Madison city council Tuesday night.

The council introduced and then advanced to final passage an ordinance replacing previous traffic signals at the intersection of the school crossing light and flasher at the Sixth and McCambridge intersection. The school lights were replaced by the new traffic signals.

A second ordinance setting out regulations for use of pedestrian buttons and providing a penalty of from $5 to $100 for violations also was adopted.

The signals permit use of activator buttons by pedestrians and the ordinance makes it a violation for pedestrians to cross the street against the "don't walk" signal.

Mayor Stephen Maeras told regular members the new traffic signals are expected to eliminate dangerous conditions at the intersection of the school crossing light and flasher at the Sixth and McCambridge intersection. The school lights were replaced by the new traffic signals.

The council also agreed to an amendment of its contract with Leo Daily & Associates, St. Louis, planning firm, for preparation of data required to apply for federal funds for a Neighborhood Housing Development program.

Loan to City Ok'd; Layoffs Now Canceled

Mayor Won't Sign Tax
Anticipation Warrant,
But Someone Else Can

"I see no reason for city employment cutbacks now, with the bank willing to lend us up to $500,000," Mayor Partney commented following Tuesday night's special Finance committee meeting with officers of the First Granite City National Bank. The meeting was held in the office of City Treasurer E. Paul Lichtenberger.

The bank will provide the money at 3% interest, with the city to pay it back immediately upon receipt of new tax funds, possibly next July—in accordance with state law.

Paul Lichtenberger, president of the bank, commented that the interest rate is most favorable, considering a 6 1/2% rate now being obtained on tax exempt issues.

Mayor Partney stressed that he would not sign the tax anticipation warrant, but it was determined the city council could designate someone else to sign the Finance committee chairman, to sign the document instead of the mayor.

Ironically, Alderman Moerlen, Finance committee chairman, was mayor in the 1940s—25 years ago—when the city was pulled out of the red. It has not been in the red since.

City council members are expected to approve a $150,000 to $200,000 tax anticipation warrant next Monday night to ward off Mayor Partney's order for a Feb. 1 cutback involving 34 city employees, who would have been laid off in temporary layoffs, transfers or shorter work weeks. It was estimated the city would have to pay at least $50,000 to carry it through the end of the fiscal year in April.

The mayor added that should the council fail to provide adequate funds for full operation of the city in future months, he would reinstate his cutback order.

Treasurer Rich said Tuesday night that he had scrutinized current bills and has found department heads are cutting back in expenditures.

But President Lichtenberger said it would be unusual if the reduction amounted to 20%. He implied it might be "better than 20%."

However, Partney commented that he learned an alderman was proceeding to purchase of $36,000 worth of equipment for the street department during the initial stages of the location of $90,000 from the federal government to share the cost of nearly $90,000 spent for sewer break repairs.

The mayor cautioned that cutbacks would be ordered if the release of federal money pushed the city deeper in debt.

Deeper in Debt
"Look at it this way," he explained, "we borrow $500,000 at 5%, the taxpayers have to pay that interest. Then about mid-July we get our first installment (Continued on page 12, col. 3)

Crippled Children's Benefit Ball Saturday

The 32nd annual ball sponsored by the Venice Crippled Children's Organization will be one of the major events of the year and the organization's principal fund-raising benefit. Dancing will begin at 8 p.m. at the residence of Rich Wargis, orchestra. Prizes will be awarded.

An advance ticket sale has been conducted, but tickets also will be available at the door. Donations are $1.

As an added feature of the event, Venice volunteer firemen and members of American Legion Post 307 will conduct their annual "Road Block" Saturday morning from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Highway 150.

During the road block, firemen and legionnaires will solicit contributions for crippled children from motorists making the traffic stop at the intersection.

Former Drug Addict Tells 'Ins and Outs' of Habit

A former $3000-a-day narcotics peddler whose $300-a-day drug habit resulted in prison sentences in five state penitentiaries told Granite City Rotarians Tuesday that all age levels are susceptible to drug use, including grade school youngsters.

Miles, a former pusher, addict and ex-convict, said anyone hooked on drugs of any kind serves before being helped to kick the habit.

"If there is one individual in the community on drugs, the situation is bad," he said replying to a question posed about drug usage in the Quad-Cities.

Miles, who now works as a counselor with Coordinated Youth Services while studying at SIU-SW toward a degree in sociology, ranked marijuana, speed (amphetamines) and LSD—one, two and three—in local usage today. Principal drug used by St. Louis addicts is heroin, he said.

Praises New Service
Commenting on the confidential telephone service, started in Granite City two weeks ago, through which individuals wishing to remain anonymous can get assistance or give information concerning narcotics or drug abuse, Miles said, "the service is really working."

Most callers don't want anyone to know they are on drugs and a great many are afraid because of the legal aspects. Through the confidential phone plan, I can talk with those who need help, advising them where counseling and assistance are available, without fear of legal action," Miles said. He noted that since the program began in Jan. 12, he has personally talked with more than 40 callers.

Any drug prevention program, including those sponsored by local service clubs, is useful, the speaker stressed. "It is in this manner that information about drug abuse is finally getting out. The more information and communication about the drug situation, the better."

He said misuse of drugs is "very prevalent on the SIU-SW campus." Although a drug abuse program has been started on the local campus, with a counselor available for student help, he said, "it is not enough for someone who doesn't want help. I know that from personal experience."

Wanted $100 Suits
Miles said he began the drug habit at 13 when he joined a street gang in New York's Harlem. "My outlook on life was negative, because of my associations and everything around me," he said.

He wanted $100 suits, so for 15 or 16 years I stole to get them. I tried to stop using drugs, but couldn't, and I wasn't able to communicate with anyone."

At 21, he entered the Army, serving in Korea, but returned to the drug scene when his service records were mishandled and he couldn't return home as planned. "I was unable to face this problem. From then on, life was a nightmare in and out of prison," he said.

He served time at three Illinois penitentiaries, the Lexington, Ky., prison and a state prison. At the latter institution, drugs were easily accessible and "I stayed high all the time I was there on barbiturates. Anytime there is a hospital or a dispensary around, you can get drugs," he pointed out.

Smith Urges Women to Work for Road Safety

U. S. Senator Ralph Tyler Smith (R. Ill.) this week called for a nationwide effort by women to halt death and destruction on the nation's highways. "American women must be in the forefront of the attack on traffic accidents, if it is to be successful," he said in a letter to Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council. Calling the nation's highway death toll a disgrace, he noted that the toll increases each year.

"In 1967, 52,924 people were killed in traffic accidents. In 1968, 55,200 were killed, and at the rate 1969 was going, it will substantially surpass 1968," the senator warned Tuesday.

However, he said "While the national toll has increased, the Illinois toll has tended to stabilize. In 1967, Illinois had 2483 traffic deaths. In 1968, we had 2,499 and indications are that 1969 will be about the same."

In Illinois, women's organizations throughout the Illinois Conference of Women Leaders for Traffic Safety have provided grassroots support for the state traffic safety program, Smith said.

"It would seem to me that a National Council of Women Leaders for Traffic Safety follow the Illinois lead and spark a safety crusade. Women can get the job done."

"Congress has provided each state with federal funds to be used in combination with state and local funds in order to attack the traffic death crisis. But the final word on any program must come from the public. If there is public acceptance, there will be public support."

The senator called on the Na-

lift station, Warfield said the line is 15 feet underground. Alderman Parnley motioned for the matter to be referred to the engineer for recommendation and for sewage to be pumped should the complete break occur before next week's council meeting.

Warfield stood up and stressed again that the lift station was in danger and called upon council members for immediate action. Parnley withdrew his motion, and repairs were authorized.

Trouble along Oaklawn

The street superintendent also reported trouble in the Oaklawn drive sewer line between Terrace and Janday lanes. "A sewer machine is caught in it and we may have to dig it out. The line is up and down, but sewage is still flowing."

"We did get a broken sewer cleaning rod out of it and tried to redrill the line again today. Because of the condition of the line, we could rod for only 100 feet today, where before we could go 300 feet," he told the council.

The street department will continue its work in freeing the jammed sewer machine from the line, he added.

The city engineer reported close watch is being kept on a line in an easement paralleling Dodge avenue where several depressions have been noted. "We know the line has dropped four inches about 100 feet from a manhole, and it may be eight inches elsewhere," the engineer said. Repair work has been carried out at T-joints where there are house connections.

Lynch Repairs to Start
On the brighter side, the Department of Army, St. Louis District Corps of Engineers, advised the city that a bid had been received for the Lynch avenue sewer line in Cloverview is being made.

The bid opening is set for Feb. 17, with the city to furnish needed access ways by Feb. 11. That task was assigned to the city engineer and city attorney.

Because of breaks, sewage has been pumped along the Lynch avenue easement off and on for the past six to eight months. The Corps of Engineers noted that use of divers in several locations will be needed and that in other places, fencing, hedges and even a dog pen will have to be moved to permit repair crews to function.

The repairs are to be financed by the Civil Defense disaster funds allocation.

Other Life Station Problems
Again on the darker side, the need to enlarge a runoff line from the Nameoki road to Clear avenue lift station was urged by the city engineer.

He said the present eight and ten inch lines that connect the lift station to the city sewer system south of Nameoki road should be enlarged to 15 inches to handle the increasing volume of sewage.

The work would involve piling a block of line, the engineer told council members. He was instructed to prepare a cost estimate for next week's council session.

The engineer added that repairs have been completed to the pumps at the Nameoki-St. Clair lift station, but that larger pumps are needed for the lift station at Warren and St. Clair avenues. To increase the capacity, the larger pumps would cost $22, he advised the council.

There also is a problem with the lift and Aubrey avenues lift station. The engineer was asked to submit a full report next week.

Unmet Housing Demand Backlog To Grow in '70

An annual industry forecast prepared by the Johns-Manville Corp. indicates that tight money and for sewage to be pumped should the complete break occur before next week's council meeting.

Despite a substantial and growing demand backlog, the building industry will continue to bear the brunt of anti-inflation measures through at least the first half of this year, according to J.M. marketing vice-president, Fred.

The present artificially forced downturn in housing and other construction sectors is enlarging an already tremendous backlog that will be the result of the de-escalation of Vietnam housing allowances and the use of tight money policies, Martins has advised the local press.

$88 Billion Total
For 1970, the J-M study forecasts a modest decline in overall construction spending, from $90.8 billion to $88 billion. It includes cost increases expected to total slightly less in 1970 than the 6.9% in 1969. A cooling-off of inflation is projected.

Housing starts are expected to drop from 1,500,000 to 1,300,000, a 13% decrease. This would be slightly above the 1,200,000 low in 1966 but far below the demand, estimated by economists to be at least 2,000,000 starts annually.

Part of the gap between actual starts and accumulated demand is being met by the rapidly growing mobile home industry. Mobile home production grew to 400,000 in 1969, up 26%, and is likely to reach 480,000 this year.

Mortgage Funds Scarce
Citing present high interest rates and the unavailability of mortgage money, Martin's forecast notes that some easing of inflation may be evident in the second half of 1970, permitting a flow of additional funds into construction.

"However, it does not appear likely at present that the Federal Reserve will be in a position to relax its restrictive money policy early enough in the year to permit more than a moderate comeback, if any, in housing starts."

Non-residential building prospects are mixed. "Contract awards for industrial plant construction have taken a surprising upturn," Martins said, even though industry is operating well below its preferred ratio to capacity.

Boom in Office Buildings
Contract awards for office buildings, which have increased at a phenomenal rate since early 1968, only recently began to level off. Contracts for offices have declined moderately, but not nearly as much as might have been expected from the sharp drop in housing starts.

Industrial construction is pegged at $7 billion, up from $6.5 billion, with commercial buildings decreasing slightly from $14.1 billion to $13 billion.

Expenditures for educational and religious buildings are expected to be lower. Private school construction will be down 40%, from $5,850,000,000 to $3,500,000,000.

"While the increase in college enrollments continues to be high, the rate of increase for both elementary and high schools is significantly down," Martins said.

More Hospital Rooms, Sewers
Contract awards for hospital and health buildings saw a recent sharp rise in the past year. As a result, private expenditures will be up 20% this year, from $2,240,000,000 to $2,691,000,000.

"Sewage system spending should register a 7 1/2% gain from $1.4 to $1.5 billion, reflecting the high priority being given to projects to combat pollution."

"Expenditures for water supply systems are expected to decline 3.6% from $1.4 billion to $1,350,000,000."

"All other areas of public construction will continue to feel the pinch of tight money policies, announced Federal spending curbs, high interest on municipal bonds, and efforts of state and local agencies to tighten budgets."

Demand Must Be Met
"In total, the construction expenditures in 1970 after a continuing build-up of demand which must be satisfied, at the same time as the nation's population grows, so does its need for homes, shopping centers, schools and water facilities, roads, schools and hospitals."

"It is particularly regrettable that monetary restraints have brought about what Housing and Urban Development Secretary George Romney has termed 'the most severe housing shortage since the end of world war II.'"

"Just as soon as inflation has been brought under control — an objective as vital to the construction industry as it is to the entire national economy — it is essential that the highest priority be given to satisfying the critical need for new housing."

MORE ABOUT Madison Youth

tigator of the sheriff's office, told newsmen that Burns related that Blankenship and his companion had met Burns in the pool hall and repeatedly threatened him, and had followed him outside where they continued their threats "and called him names."

According to Nicholas, Burns said the threats became so persistent that he told the two youths they were under arrest for "peace disturbance or disorderly conduct," and that when he did so, the pair advanced toward him, despite a warning. Burns said he pulled his gun and fired in their direction when they refused to stop. They both fled.

Nicholas said the sheriff's office is seeking Blankenship's companion, whose identity was known, and that the matter would be referred to the state's attorney's office with a request that charges be filed against both youths. He said the nature of the charges would be left up to the state's attorney.

Damage estimated at $75 was caused at the home of Emma Compton, 1114 Market street, Venice, by fire apparently started because of a defective flue about 8:35 p.m. yesterday.

Venice firemen said the fire was confined to the wall around the flue. Firemen were at the scene about 40 minutes. The Venice fire department also answered an alarm at 10:40 a.m. yesterday to Broadway and Market street where burning rubbish had set fire to a utility pole. Firemen, who were at the scene about 15 minutes, said there was no damage.

MORE ABOUT Seek Grant

He was informed that funds were available for feasibility studies for such projects and planning funds would be available in instances where studies proved the projects feasible.

In an unusually brief session yesterday, the county board approved a recommendation by Granite City Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the finance committee, for purchase of seven cars and a station wagon for the sheriff's patrol force from Striker Chevrolet Co. of Alton. Hagnauer said the firm was low bidder with an offer of $19,007 for all eight vehicles.

The board also concurred in a recommendation of the finance committee to employ the Alton firm of R. C. Scheffel & Co. to make the county audit for the 1969 fiscal year which ended Nov. 30, with the cost to be limited to a maximum of $15,000.

Mention MH Dispute
The dispute between the county's 708 Mental Health Clinic and the Quad-City Mental Health Clinic in which the 708 board insists on dismissal of the Granite City clinic director, attracted only brief mention but no official board action during the meeting. The reference came from Edward Vourmand, assistant Alton supervisor, who criticized Marshall Zeke Smith, assistant state's attorney, in regard to the Jan. 13 meeting of the 708 board.

Vourmand told the board,

"The 708 board meeting should have been on TV. When the meeting started, here comes Smith with a court reporter. There were a lot of people here and they were told they could ask the board members questions, but when they tried to do so they were told the court reporter had to get it all in detail just in case there might happen to be a court proceeding. That's a fine way to conduct a public meeting."

"It's time," Vourmand said, "that we cut out the grand stand playing for partisan politics. It's only going to hurt the image of local government. Let's address ourselves to the important matters of government."

MH Letters Filed
Five letters directed to the county board of supervisors and criticizing the 708 board's actions in the dispute with the Quad-City clinic and mental health board were received and filed. The letters were not read as communications after it was pointed out that copies of the letters had been made and sent to all seven members of the 708 board.

The supervisors approved renewal of a micro-filming program for the circuit clerk's office with the Maybell-Richell Microfilm Service of Spicaria, with maximum cost fixed at $20,000.

A bid from A & E Electronics St. Louis, for installation of radio equipment in five sheriff's patrol cars at a cost of $6175 was accepted and a contract approved. The firm was the only bidder.

Gilbert Killinger, Collinsville supervisor and chairman of the Tax Committee, reported that almost a half million dollars has been collected in the county's program to force payment of delinquent taxes that was initiated last summer. Killinger said the $340,715 in real estate taxes and $10,677 in personal property taxes "that had been given up as lost" was collected up to Dec. 31.

Grant Use Permit

The board approved a recommendation of the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals that a petition of Charles Mantia, owner of record and occupant of a mobile home, be granted a special use permit to place a mobile home in an R-4 Single Family Residence District in Nameoki township.

The supervisors concurred in another zoning board recommendation granting a request for rezoning of a tract of land in Venice township from R-3 One Family Residence district to R-2 Highway Business district, on petition of Estes and Dale Dickey.

The same action approved a request by the same petitioners for a special use permit to locate a mobile home on the rezoned tract, but the permit was limited to three years.

Approval was granted on a petition of Jack V. Patrick, owner of record, for a special use permit to operate a mobile home sales and display in an R-3 One Family Residence district in Nameoki township.

Madison County Federal S&L Re-elects Officers

"The outlook for the savings and housing markets in 1970 is at best uncertain," A. H. Froemling, president of the Madison County Federal Savings and Loan Association, said at Wednesday's annual report to shareholders.

"In this connection," he said, "much depends on the progress made in the fight against inflation, and all of us hope that the anti-inflation measures prove much more effective in 1970 than they did in 1969."

Directors who were re-elected for 1970 included A. F. Buehler, R. Y. Champion, R. B. Dunlap, A. H. Froemling, E. L. Hopkins, J. L. Palchiff, W. C. Rainford, J. W. Reese and Gilbert Roush. In addition to Froemling, officers who were re-elected included Buehler and Roush, vice-presidents and C. P. Specking, secretary and treasurer.

Froemling reported that as of Dec. 31, total savings deposits amounted to $11,196,508; mortgage loans on the books totaled $11,146,624.

Assets of the institution stood at $12,942,071.

He said that while 1969 was not as good a savings year as 1968, it was better than 1965 when tight money was at its worst.

Savings account holders at the association received a total of $535,292 in dividend payments during the year, making this the largest distribution of earnings to customers in the institution's history.

During the year Madison County Federal added $77,145 to its reserves bringing total reserves and undivided profits up to $853,696.

The annual report pointed out that the operations of the association and other thrift institutions were dominated by the so-called "tight money" policies of the Federal Reserve Board designed to fight the inflation.

"As a result of these policies," Froemling said, "and the heavy demand for credit, 1969 was characterized by a shortage of mortgage credit and unusually high interest rates."

"If we start to quell the inflation to a great extent this year, then savings flow should improve. In turn, this will help us to finance the housing needs of the community."

Check 'Exchange' Due With HUD Audit Ok

An exchange of checks is expected to take place shortly, as soon as the federal Housing and Urban Development agency in Chicago clears the audit of funds spent for Granite City's $3,300,000 storm water drainage system.

HUD, which financed $1,500,000 of the project with a grant, has ordered a freeze on all final payments until the audit check is completed, it was learned from Mayor Partney this week.

In the meantime, the mayor is holding up a $5347 check for the project bond attorney, Horace Calvo, while Calvo is holding a check for $22,153 from Granite City Steel Co., payable to the city for adjustments made in the drainage lines at the steel firm's water lines through the 24th street parkway. To have turned off the water supply from the river would have shut down the mill at an expense of over a million dollars.

Calvo said the city audit of the project funds was completed in November. His pay was approved by the council nearly two months ago, while the steel firm notified the city of its payment earlier this month.

The final payment to the city from HUD is about $150,000, and Mayor Partney said final payments still are due the contractor and engineer as well as the start.

Purple Heart for Pfc McCallister

Army Pfc James L. McCallister, 24, son of Arthur L. McCallister, 2206 State street, and Mrs. Goldie M. Mosley of Kennedale, Tex., recently was awarded the Purple Heart Medal in ceremonies conducted at Pleiku, Vietnam.

A member of Company B, 4th Supply and Transportation Battalion, Fourth Infantry Division, the serviceman received the award as a result of wounds suffered in action against hostile forces in Vietnam late last year.

Pfc McCallister has served in Vietnam since August, and was stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., before arriving overseas. He entered the Army one year ago.

The soldier was presented the medal and citation by Lt. Col. Sheldon on Dec. 21. Pfc McCallister's wife, Diana, also resides at Kennedale, Tex.

Born in Elmont, Mo., she moved to this area in 1915 to work for her husband, Fredrick L. Spengler, three sons, Fred G. Spengler of Cape Elizabeth, Me., and David E. Spengler of Granite City, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Ellen Kupp of Granite City, a brother, Corbett Bailey of Omaha, Neb.; three sisters, Mrs. Flora Bell of Sullivan, Mo., Mrs. Frances Cooper of Claremont, Calif., and Mrs. Rachel O'Brien of St. Louis; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Nixon Fund Veto Would Cut Aid To GC Schools

G. J. Lebonick Opens Illinois House Campaign

George J. Lebonick, 29, Collinsville, an overseas Air Force veteran employed by McDonnell-Douglas, launched his campaign for state representative on the Republican ticket yesterday with a tour of the district. The election will take place March 17.

Air and water pollution, crime and tax reform were cited as major issues. Married and operator of a coin shop in Collinsville, he attended Parks Air College and currently is studying at SIU-SW.

son and stepson of John and Eva Uhercik sr.; dear brother of Edward and John Uhercik; dear grandfather.

His remains will lie in state at F. D. LACK FUNERAL HOME, 615 Madison avenue, Madison. Funeral services 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 24, St. John Lutheran Church, 2100 St. Clair avenue, Interment Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville township.

Veto of the congressionally approved Health, Education and Welfare budget, which has been threatened by President Nixon, could mean a loss to Granite City School District 9 of about $250,000 in federal aid funds, it was reported today.

The original budget presented to Congress by the President would have eliminated or severely curtailed three federal programs which have been providing this amount to the Granite City district. Congress, however, reinstated monies for continuation of the programs and the President now promises his veto of the bill as inflationary.

Dale C. Rea, assistant to Sup. B. J. Davis, said the jeopardized programs include Title III of the Elementary Secondary Education Act which last year provided about $14,000 for library materials; Title III of the National Defense Education Act from which $26,500 was received for the purchase of equipment; and Public Law S4 legislation which provides funds to school districts where large numbers of parents are employed in federal properties from which no taxes are derived. The district's allotment under this legislative section is $98,000, Rea said.

Illinois Has Acted

The latter legislation, involving the larger sum of money, has been blocked out for particularly strong presidential objections, Rea said. The Illinois legislature in its last session approved a similar bill to provide funds to schools where the tax base is effected by large numbers of state employees and state property.

Rea said he recently wrote U. S. Senators Ralph T. Smith and Charles Percy, pointing out that "There seems to be a gross inequity between the efforts of the people of the state of Illinois to meet their obligations and the denial of such obligation at the national level."

Rea said that Title I funds, now providing about $130,000 in the Granite City district for education of the disadvantaged, are not involved, but an expansion of the vocational education program now being planned, to be financed by state, local and federal funds, could be affected.

Bridgeman and Burcham won decisions, Wilson lost 9-8 against the Oilers' No. 1 grappler and team captain, 125-pound Sam Williams.

With the varsity team for the first time, Mike Garland, 135, wrestled to a 6-6 draw and Mike Wilson, 175, won 6-4.

Missing from the GCHS lineup were 155-pound Frank Mehelec with knee problems and 175-pound Steve Ganz with a sore shoulder.

Using half nelsons and reverse bars, Bruce Miller (88) and Rick Wickham (155) won in 5:11 and 1:40, respectively.

Alton Edges Trojans; MHS-O'Fallon Friday

Madison bowed in its opening-round game of the Belleville East basketball tournament last night, losing to Alton 73-67.

The same night, Belleville West nipped O'Fallon 63-62. In Tuesday's action, Belleville East edged Belleville Alhthoff 70-44 and Mater Dei of Breese won over Cahokia 72-56.

Tonight, if Alton was playing Cahokia at 7 o'clock and Belleville West vs. Mater Dei in a semifinal contest at 8:30.

On Friday, it will be Madison vs. O'Fallon in a consolation game at 7 p.m. and Alton vs. Belleville West in semifinal play at 8:30 p.m.

Play Again Saturday

On Saturday — the two-time losers will play at 1 p.m. and the consolation finale is set for 2:30 p.m. Third place will be decided at 7 p.m. Saturday and the tourney championship at 8:30 p.m.

The Trojans leaped to a 15-6 lead early in the game but Alton, shifting to a full-court press, slowed the MHS scoring momentum and left the Trojans behind 37-29 by halftime. MHS then edged closer but could not salvage the game.

Trojan Coach Larry Graham said, "The word 'Alton' must have gotten into my head. It's happened before against some other big name schools. But this is the first time we only put out a half effort."

"Alton wasn't in the best form, either. If Alton was playing its sharpest, it would have won by 30 points. If it had been a good night for us, we would have won by 20."

Madison scorers were Oscar Ittler 15, Chuck Dandridge and Tom Noel 11 each, Joe Dozier 8, Charles Pogorelec and John Ervin six each and Doug La Griggs, five.

Fouls Hurt as Red Devils Drove 82-77 Decision at Lincoln

The hardwood Red Devils of Venice lost 82-77 at East St. Louis Lincoln Tuesday.

The Devils led 23-18 after the opening quarter. But the Johnson brothers, Andrei and Doug, 6-6, were forced to the bench for much of the second quarter with three personal fouls each and Lincoln led 44-41 at the intermission and 62-60 after three periods.

Lincoln's 6-7 sophomore center, Derrick Glanton scored 20 points.

Venice went ahead briefly on several occasions after halftime but Lincoln's taller players prevailed.

Cecil Gardner took game honors with 30 points. Pessor Gray panned 25, Doug Johnson ten, Jim Ohlendorf five, Harold Gortemeyer four and Andrei Johnson three.

At 8 p.m. Saturday, the Red Devils will visit the defending Missouri large school champion, Sumner of St. Louis.

GCHS Hosts Lutheran South Soccer Squad, Seeks Sixth Shutout

The soccer Warriors might be better suited with the name of Eskimos, because they wear so little clothing to protect themselves from the frosty winter air. But with continuing dread for the climate, Granite City's team plans to play Lutheran South of St. Louis county today at 4 p.m. on GCHS field.

Last weekend Coach Tom Wyrostek canceled a Granite City game for the first time during winter. One other game was not played, but that was because of rain, he recalls; purpose was to avoid damaging the field for football.

Wyrostek explains that temperature also was not the consideration in dropping Saturday's game. The field was a slick sheet of ice and the Riverview coach agreed, that there was a danger players would be injured with the foot.

Today's game is a rematch. Earlier this season, GCHS defeated Lutheran South 5-1. Wyrostek notes, "We got a lot of breaks. We scored only 22-210, Phil McFarland 225, Jim through some really good plays. Stuart 206, 225, Mike Suss 204; I don't think we're any better than they are."

The Warriors may be moving toward an unofficial area record, with their total of five shutout victories. They have a 10-3 season record.

Leading the local "cold toed" kickers' scoring attack is Jerry Monahan. He has made 11 goals and is credited with 10 assists. Bobby Galvan leads in goals with 14.

TWO POINTS FOR SIU-SW. The Cougars, in a mid-season slump, bowed to Quincy College 87-70 Monday night. Guard Dennis Carroll (in white) shoots one which dropped through the hoop. Guarding him is Quincy's Tony Trenkle (45), while the winners' Don Wente (43) is ready to lend a hand. At the right under the basket is Cougar John Summers (34) of Madison.

Drives by Quincy Guard Break Open Game with SIU-SW

Quincy College's 5-10 guard, Bob Ociecka, deeded a Cougar rally and iced Quincy's 87-70 win over SIU-SW Monday night at the Edwardsville high school gym.

SIU-SW, sinking only 13 of 42 floor attempts against Quincy's 17 of 38 floor tries during the first half, saw the Hawks move ahead 47-40 at the intermission.

John Summers of Madison was charged with four traveling penalties during the opening half and sank three of 11 field goal attempts. The usually high-scoring Cougar captain, Bernie Pitts, was held to three field goals but supplemented his pre-halftime scoring total with eight one-pointers.

Summers improved his field goal percentage to seven of 17 before fouling out of the game. The Cougars trailed by only 6-42 with five minutes left. From that point in the game, with 18.

Urges Full Staff

The firm's recommendation was for employment of a full-time staff of 8 technical secretaries, engineer or chemist, secretary, part-time technician and for equipment and supplies and incidental costs that would amount to $50,000 a year.

The Air Pollution Control board, with its part-time staff, spent $6500 last year and with a $14,000 budget this year is expected to spend even less.

Air Pollution costs here have been 18 cents per capita, compared to the federal government's recommended amount of 25 to 40 cents, the report pointed out.

Based on the federal average per capita loss resulting from air pollution of $65 per person, Granite City's total would be $2,600,000 a year, the report stated.

Henry Bieniecki, chairman of the city clean air board, said the report would be studied and a decision would be made by the board at a meeting early in February for recommendation to the city council.

Complaints Mailed

Prof. Hoebcher reported to the board that Union Division of Miles Laboratory has completed a phase of its abatement program by rebuilding the three drying stacks.

He added that letters of complaint have been sent to Granite City Steel Inc. regarding standard violations at the coke ovens of the blast furnace plant. A malfunctioning of the ovens was blamed for one complaint.

It was noted the state air pollution control agency is discouraging local agencies and is planning to withdraw exemptions already issued to municipalities. Local board members noted the state agency was to retain full air pollution control, but lacks the personnel to carry out any enforcement program.

ICC Hearings on Water Rate Rise to Resume

The Illinois Commerce Commission plans to resume hearings in mid-February on the proposed rate increase of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. for a 4.7% increase in water rates. The commission has granted the Alton Water Co. a 2.4% rate boost which will raise the average monthly bill from $8.71 to $7.42 for thousands of home owners.

Announcement of the rate increase was followed by assurances of Alton Mayor Paul Lanz that the city will take immediate steps to buy the water company. The Alton Water Co. originally sought a rate increase of 4.3% in 1969.

Registration Drive For Primary Opens

A series of special registration centers in the Quad-City area has been arranged by County Clerk Edalita Holt to facilitate registration for the March primary election.

Miss Holt said the registration centers will be conducted at various dates in different locations throughout the Quad-City area to save voters the inconvenience of making a trip to Edwardsville to register or change voting records. The centers will be conducted until Feb. 16, deadline for registration for the primary balloting.

First of the centers will be conducted tomorrow, Wednesday, at the First Granite City National Bank from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. and at the Midway Hotel, 2205 Pontoon road, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. Another is scheduled tomorrow in the Tri-City Grocery, 400 Broadway, Venice, from noon to 7 p.m.

Maynard Stark, 27, Sunset drive, was ticketed Monday by Granite City police on a charge of driving around a lowered railroad crossing gate on Pontoon road.

Mayor Proposes GC Sewer Code, Sewer Department

A Sewers and Sewage Disposal Code for the city of Granite City was distributed Monday night to Granite City council members by Mayor Partridge for study and recommendation.

The code calls for a superintendent of sewers with a department that would function as a sewer treatment plant rather than the street department.

Partney explained the treatment plant department would serve as superintendent of sewers and that a three-man crew should be able to handle the sewer tasks.

"What we need is a system to prevent sewer breaks—sewer cleaning every day and a full-time maintenance staff to carry out the task."

Early Detection

"This procedure is followed in other cities. The first place that any sewer break can be detected is at the treatment plant," said Mayor Partridge. Then the staff can begin the job of backtracking to find the location before the damage becomes too expensive.

"If you recall," the mayor continued, "such a program was recommended back in 1960, when we had a series of costly sewer breaks. We didn't have the treatment plant then. Under his economy program, the mayor proposes in addition to police and firemen layoffs, the transfer of three street department men to the sewer treatment plant where funds are available for salaries under special funds without touching the city's general funds.

Even with a staff in the layoffs through issuance of tax and appropriation warrants, the mayor proposes establishment of a sewer department.

At Monday night's council meeting, Nann opposed the proposed transfer of three street department men to the sewer treatment plant for sewer maintenance work. "I don't see how three men can do the job," he suggested.

He suggested the department be established with an experienced sewer maintenance man as superintendent, working out of a city building in West Granite.

"You shouldn't cut the street department. The streets even now are a disgrace. There's not enough men in the street department now. People are not happy with the streets."

"You'll also have trouble transferring street department members who are in the Teamsters and Laborers Union in the street department, who would be transferred to the sewer treatment plant where the Operating Engineers have jurisdiction," Nann told officials.

Under the mayor's plan, the mayor said he had already been in conference with representatives of the unions involved in the proposed transfers.

He added that unless a regular program of sewer cleaning and maintenance is started immediately, the city can expect further sewer troubles with the spring rains. "We should have done something back in 1960," the mayor said.

The mayor reported to the council that communications are being made with an East Coast firm that holds $600,000 of the Namekiki area sanitary sewer bonds in hopes arrangements can be made to alter the bond issue ordinance to allocate surplus funds for sewer maintenance.

"The bond seller in Chicago helping and is cutting other bond holders," the mayor reported.

The mayor's code calls for preservation of public health, safety, welfare and convenience through charges and rates for use of the sewer with the funds to be used for maintenance and operation of the system.

The fees would be the same as specified in the Namekiki area sanitary sewer and sewage disposal ordinances.

At the future it would be forbidden for any property owner to connect any system to drain any storm water into sanitary sewers, including downspouts.

The mayor said it is an absolute necessity to keep storm water out of sanitary sewers, especially those lines in the Namekiki area, where capacities were not designed for storm water.

Effort to Force Levee Board Vote Fails

There will be no election this year for a member of the board of trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district to fill a vacancy.

County Clerk Edalita Holt said yesterday.

Miss Holt said the period in which an election could be called by Gov. Ogilvie to include the levee district election in this year's primary and general elections had expired Monday when she received certification of candidates for preparation of ballots from the secretary of state's office at Springfield.

In the absence of a writ of election issued by the governor, Miss Holt said, her office has no authority to conduct such an election.

As a result, the names of three candidates — two Democrats and one Republican — who filed nomination petitions with Miss Holt's office during the December filing period, will not appear on the ballot for the district board of trustees will continue operating with only four members. Three of the members are from St. Clair county, and one, William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, from Madison county.

Vote Again in '72

The next regular levee board election is not scheduled until 1972 when five board memberships will be subject to balloting in both the primary and general elections. Under state law, however, the governor may appoint a member of the board of trustees when there is less than a year of an unexpired term remaining.

A move to force an election this year was based on reports of state election statutes that require such an election if candidates filed. The statutes which never was identified by attorneys or political leaders who promoted the move, was said to require the county clerk to call the election in the face of filings by candidates.

As a result, petitions were circulated in behalf of Paul Zupan of Granite City, who was said in political circles to have the backing of Dick H. Mudge of Edwardsville and Richard Allen of Granite City. Zupan was defeated in a bid for the levee board post in 1968.

Word of the action got out and the Democrats aligned with the Venice-Madison organized circulated petitions for William D. Greathead of Granite City, while Republicans circulated petitions for Edward Werner of Granite City, who also made an unsuccessful bid for the levee board in 1968.

Sought Legal Opinion

All three of the candidates filed the petitions on the final day of the filing period. Miss Holt accepted the petitions but said the fate of an election hinged upon a legal ruling as to what authority her office had in conducting such an election. She sought a legal opinion from the state's attorney's office, but no ruling had yet been given when the period for certification of candidates expired.

The levee board vacated in the death last year of Joseph Grant of Granite City, who was re-elected to a four-year term in 1968. With Ebersoldt, Grant represented Madison county and the two made up this county's representation on the levee board of trustees.

Firemen at Lumber Blaze Praised For Saving Homes

Residents in the vicinity of the Emmitt Jones Building & Supply Co., 1631 Minerva avenue, which was destroyed by fire last Saturday night, this week praised the promptness and efficiency of firefighters who battled the flash fire in sub-freezing temperatures as almost certainly responsible for saving many homes in the immediate area.

Long Lake volunteer fire department, aided by firemen from the Mitchell volunteer unit, were at the fire scene for 24 hours and continued to play at least one line of water on smoldering embers through Monday.

One man who called the fire scene told reporters that he gave his name said he thought the firemen deserved "a lot of praise for saving the rest of the block." He said the flames whipped so high they easily could have spread to homes immediately adjoining the lumber yard property.

A woman who lived near the fire scene told reporters that "everyone should know what a good job the firemen did. They saved it all of property."

Emmitt Jones, owner of the business, estimated damage at $60,000. Three trucks and a hi-lift were destroyed in the blaze, along with a full stock of building materials, hardware and lumber. Jones said.

The business has reopened at 789 East Chadwick street, where the quarters formerly used as a warehouse, Jones said he does not plan to rebuild at the Minerva location.

GC Jaycees Designated A 'Gold Chip Chapter'

More than 300,000 young men between the ages of 21 and 35 years in 6000 Jaycee chapters throughout the country today are observing the 50th anniversary of the founding of the United States Jaycees. Today included among those celebrating the occasion are Granite City Jaycees whose organization has been designated a "Gold Chip Chapter," which denotes significant achievement in various areas of service for five consecutive years.

Announcement that the local chapter has achieved "Gold Chip" status was made today by Stanley Noe, Granite City Jaycee president and national Jaycee official. It is the first time a local area chapter has received the Gold Chip Award, making Granite City only the second club in south-central Illinois to achieve the honor.

To qualify for the "Gold Chip Award," Granite City Jaycees were certified as a "Blue Chip Chapter" each year since 1965, a fact noted by President Noe, who cited efforts by his predecessors in office—James Burton, 1965-66; Boyd Presley, 1966-67; James Jeffries, 1967-68; and Richard Dawley, 1968-69.

Requirements fulfilled each year during the five-year period to gain "Gold Chip" status. Used a planned organization, structure as the basis for its operation; planned a year's written program of activities; operated on a planned written budget; used an activation program and completed SPOKE and Spark Plug requirements; operated a year-long program for enrollment of new members; recognized the assistance of Jaycee wives; conducted regular meetings, at least one each month; published a chapter publication; kept adequate records; had representatives at state meetings other than state or U. S. Jaycee officers.

Membership Increase
Other mandatory requirements accomplished on a year basis for five years were increasing chapter membership by 10%; and quality at least 15 members in a "Speak-Up Program" in a training series through which members address the club.

Adopted and executed a leadership training course and parliamentary procedure program; and participated in some type of religious activities. Under new rules governing the "Gold Chip Award" winners, the Granite City Jaycee Chapter qualified eight members for the Jaycee

SPOKE Award, an honor only bestowed upon a Jaycee member within his first year of joining the organization.

To achieve the SPOKE distinction, a new Jaycee must be a registered voter, work as a chairman or sub chairman on a specific project, making verbal and written reports to the membership; is required to write information for the news media; must recruit a new club member; plus additional credits earned in several optional areas.

A total of 18 local Jaycees also earned the Spark Plug designation for participation similar to SPOKE winners, plus mandatory attendance at 30% of all meetings. Current membership of the Granite City Chapter stands at 135, an increase of 15 members since June 1, Noe explained.

MORE ABOUT

er. I was just a little guy," Miles said. "The ones with the mean stay out of jail." He cited the case of a big-time peddler who would go to Florida when a bust came. "Although indicted in 1964, he had enough money for an appeal bond and is still fighting the case and still on the streets dealing."

Crimes and Drug Usage
Linking crimes of violence to drug usage, Miles said that users of hard drugs, such as heroin, seldom commit violent acts. Speed users are dangerous with the percentage high. Marijuana produces a low violence record, while LSD users normally are considered as "self-inflicting."

All drug users are liable to commit illegal acts to support their habits, he emphasized. Noting that it took him only three days to finally kick the habit, he said the withdrawal period is not the problem, but whether your problem is still there mentally.

"You can give a kid too much and you can fail to communicate with him because you are too busy and he may turn to others who are less busy," Miles said in reply to a question on why young people are turning more to drugs today. The CYS staff member was introduced by Dr. E. L. Mathias, Rotary president, conducting the business session.

All December Fines Reach $38,726 Total

The traffic division of the circuit court collected a total of $38,726 in fines for traffic and ordinance violations during December, Willard "Butch" Portell reported yesterday. Of the total, $3430 was collected in cases originating in Granite City. Fines for the city of Madison amounted to $500; for Pontoon Beach, $194 and for Venice, $158, the report said. Collections for the 20 municipalities in Madison county amounted to $23,285. Additional fines included $7496 in county cases, $90 in ICC fines, $7817 in fines for overweight loads and $65 in conservation department fines.

Parked Car Looked

A parked car owned by Curtis Pounds, 2708 Harvey place, Apt. 2, was entered by a thief who stole a bowling ball and bag and pair of bowling shoes valued at $59, it was reported Monday.

Radar Arrest

Marvin A. Parrish, 2119 Lee avenue, was ticketed Wednesday by the Granite City radar squad on a charge of speeding in the 1700 block of Madison avenue at 8:10 p.m.

HEART FUND DRIVE CHAIRMEN Mrs. Lily Chaboude (left), Heart Sunday chairman, and Mrs. Dorothy Nenninger, 1970 Heart Fund City chairman of the Tri-Cities Area and Mrs. Lily Chaboude, Heart Sunday chairman for Granite City, are recruiting hundreds of volunteers who will canvass the business districts in Granite City as well as residential areas for the 1970 campaign on Feb. 22, Heart Sunday.

HARRY JOHNSON

He further stated, "Our demands for loan increased substantially during the past year with loan totals up $3,000,000. In spite of a slowing in the residential construction field, our real estate loans increased in excess of $1,000,000. "As we informed you last year, we have proceeded with the conversion of our accounting procedures to our computer operation. In addition to our checking accounts, we now have our savings, time certificates, Christmas savings, and installment loans on our computer and the system is operating to our entire satisfaction."

Lichtenberger also stated that business in the Quad-Cities in 1969 showed a slight increase over the previous year, with indications that the extremely tight money policy dictated by the monetary authorities in Washington is succeeding in the slowed rate of economic expansion. It is believed that this trend will continue for at least the first half of 1970. "Unfortunately this policy has not resulted in any reduction of the inflation in the price of goods and services," he added.

"The action of property owners and merchants in the downtown area in endorsing the plan proposed by the Harland Bartholomew Associates for the revitalization of this area is very heartening. It is vital for the future of the city and if the improvements are completed will benefit everyone in the Quad-Cities," the bank president stated.

1st Nat'l. Bank Re-elects; Two Promotions Announced

All fourteen directors of the First Granite City National Bank were re-elected during the annual shareholders meeting on Tuesday, and two promotions were announced by P. H. Lichtenberger, bank president, following the re-election meeting of the directors.

Earl Dotzauer was promoted from cashier to vice-president and auditor, and Harry Johnson from manager of computer operations, to cashier.

Other officers elected for the new year include Harold P. Fischer re-elected chairman of the board, and S. E. Pershall, chairman of the executive committee.

Officers re-appointed were Paul H. Lichtenberger, president; Melvin C. Wilsmeier, executive vice-president; Charles L. Gavin, senior vice-president; Harold G. Bauman, vice-president and trust officer; H. J. Pitman, vice-president and comptroller.

Howard L. Etherton, vice-president; Walter K. Gavlik, vice-president; George W. Reeves and assistant vice-president; Schenck, assistant vice-president; and Herbert Camren, Edward Pierce and Edward Uherick, assistant cashiers.

The fourteen directors re-elected with $7,074 of the outstanding shares represented in person and by proxy are: H. R. Fischer, chairman of the executive committee; S. E. Pershall Jr.; Carl A. Ranft; John W. Reese; John S. Rendleman; Otto H. Roman; John J. Stolte; Nicholas P. Veeder; Melvin C. Wilsmeier, executive vice-president; and Marion E. Wilson.

President Paul Lichtenberger in reviewing the year's operations stated, "Results of your bank's operations were again satisfactory, with both gross and net income the highest in the 47-year history of the bank, with net income after taxes showing an increase of 8 1/2%. Certain changes in the regulations of the comptroller of the currency covering the reporting of income to shareholders and a change in the accounting procedure to make provision for income tax liability on an accrual basis made necessary a restatement of 1968 earnings in our annual report.

"Most gratifying was an increase of $1,282,000 in our deposits at year end. This indicates an increasing awareness and acceptance of the full bank services offered by the bank. "In the year ahead we expect to expand our services and will strive for even greater growth. Credit for our growth must be given to our employees for their efforts to give our many customers the best in banking service, as well as to our stockholders and directors for recommending their bank to their friends and associates."

Roy Lynn Appointed State Plant Inspector

Lynn, who lives at 2656 State street, and works out of his home, visited the local A. O. Smith Corp. plant with Ronak Anderson, supervisor of Springfield district on Tuesday and reported the firm and employees work hard at being a safe plant as reflected by a safety record of over 8,000,000 manhours.

Venice Awaits Funds For Technical Center

Concern that $18,000 still is owed the Venice school district by the U. S. Department of Labor and the state for operation of the Work Incentive Instruction program (WIN) at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center was voiced by Venice school board members Monday evening.

They approved a $9042 monthly bill submitted by the vocational center's administrator, but stipulated that payments be delayed until funds are released by the state.

Venice Supt. John O. Pier said the allotment due the district is for a period beginning last July. A $10,560 check for claims filed between February and July 1969 was received by the district in December.

Under contractual agreement, monthly expenses at the center are paid by the school district prior to reimbursement by federal and state agencies.

Conflict Between Agencies
A one-month or two-month delay in settling claims is not unusual, Supt. Pier explained. He cited as the probable cause of delay a recurring conflict between Labor Department and Public Aid officials.

Both have responsibility to furnish vocational instruction at state-sponsored adult education centers, he said. He agreed to discuss the state's financial obligations with officials in Springfield before the next school board meeting.

Eleven teachers from Venice-Lincoln and 13 from the East St. Louis vocational training school currently are enrolled in an SIU-SW extension course being taught at the local center. Duane Rankin, VETC administrator, informed the board. College credits are offered in the instruction, which is designed primarily for adult education teaching personnel.

Rankin also reported two incidents of vandalism at the technical center involving glass breakage, the second incident occurring Monday morning when an outside door panel was shattered by a piece of concrete hurled at the door.

It was suggested that the board consider installing an unbreakable plastic material in doors and windows smashed by vandals to reduce replacement costs. School officials were asked to investigate the cost of purchasing the new material and to report back to the board next month.

Activities Approved
Permission was granted to the Venice student council to sponsor a dance Friday, Feb. 13, at the Venice park district recreation center, with students of council members serving as chaperones.

Also authorized were a benefit chili supper at the Venice school cafeteria Saturday, March 7, under sponsorship of the Band Parents, and a car wash March 21 at the Venice high school grounds by Venice junior class members.

Assistant Supt. Robert N. Vickers announced that the Southwestern Illinois Speech Association will conduct a workshop at the Venice schools at 1:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 6. Expected to attend are speech correctionists and therapists from Madison, St. Clair, Bond and Clinton counties and guests from St. Louis.

Vickers said inspection of the Venice speech laboratory at an earlier date had impressed association members, who voted to return here for the February workshop.

New Band Instruments
Purchase of three band instruments for the Venice music department, costing a total of $1250, was authorized on the recommendation of Donald Mancil, band director.

Prices were obtained from area music companies with the low amount recommended in each instance. Instruments to be purchased from the Music Center Co., Jennings, Mo., include a Musser Brentwood marmalade, $572, and a Ludwig 26-and-29-inch timpani, $472.

A Framus string bass, with stand and cover, was authorized for purchase from the Strub Music Co., Bridgeton, Mo., at $215.

Board members approved a $50 monthly salary increase for Lawrence Hartman, Venice school administrator, raising the pay level to $275 per month.

Parent Urges More Lockers
A plea for additional locker space in the Venice physical education department or stricter supervision of student property was voiced by a parent of three Venice students. A total of 11 pairs of expensive tennis shoes was lost or stolen from them in the past three years, including two pairs last Friday, the board was told.

Harold Sitton, 211 Ashbrook street, berated board members for "the unsanitary condition of the physical education department lockers created, in most cases, by five youths having to use the same locker space."

"There are 23 lockers available, plus two without locks, for 236 boys using the locker room," Sitton said. He reported that his sons have lost five pairs of tennis shoes since school began last fall, valued at a total of $57. Within the last three years, Sitton said, the boys also have lost two wristwatches, two baseball gloves and numerous items of lesser value. Money given one son for a haircut six weeks ago was stolen from a closet office, along with change belonging to four other boys, he added.

Commenting that other Venice parents are equally concerned about the incidents of thefts at the school, Sitton said, "I want to know what you are going to do about this situation? I have talked with the police and they say it is up to you people."

Street Shoes Banned
"At the time you consolidated the schools (Lincoln and Venice), you stated things would be better, but they are worse. There are not enough lockers, showers or space," he noted that pupils are not permitted to use the gymnasium in street shoes, and added that he refuses to purchase additional tennis shoes for his youngsters unless conditions are corrected.

At the suggestion of Board Member Jack Tolliver, school officials were instructed to survey space available in the physical education locker room area and purchase additional lockers or transfer those no longer in use at the Venice-Lincoln center.

Adequate space to install new lockers is a key factor, Supt. Pier advised the board.

Sufficient locker space is available for students in the high school and elementary schools in other areas of the school buildings, he explained, but their location presents a problem in transferring gym clothing to the regular lockers.

Two Men Sing Their Way Out Of Jail

"And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and they were heard, and the prisoners heard them, and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's hands were loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been freed. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm; for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? and they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." Act 16:25-31.

GC Police Chief Debunks Winter Driving Fallacies

The mistaken ideas some people believe about winter driving are bothering Granite City's Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer.

"The misconceptions are causing accidents involving some careful drivers," the chief warned. "These 'old wives' tales' should be ditched before they land misguided motorists in a ditch."

Guided motorists in a ditch."

Chief Veizer cited some of the trouble-makers:

Fallacy No. 1.—Added weight in the trunk for better traction. According to the International Association of Chiefs of Police, that extra weight may add a little pulling ability, but it does something far worse than its slight advantage.

"The extra weight in the rear of your car increases the tendency for your vehicle to go into a side-slip," said the chief. "And when the skid does start, it acts like a pendulum—making the skid more difficult to control."

Fallacy No. 2.—Reduced tire pressures for improved traction.

"Another mistake that does no measurable good!"

"Running at low pressures is costly, it increases tire wear, and soft tires make your car and steering unstable. There's even more danger of side skids developing."

"There's a wrong way... and there's a right way," Chief Veizer emphasized. "And the best way is to heed recommendations of skid-testers who have researched winter driving problems and techniques as members of the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards."

"1. To get started in snow or slush, swing your front wheels from side to side to clear a path. Then accelerate gently. Start in drive, or use second gear with a manual transmission. Apply just enough gas to start the wheels turning and the car moving. Don't spin your wheels."

"2. Rocking your car can help manufacturer's instructions on how to rock your car without damage to the transmission. Sand, cinders, rock salt, a metal mat or pieces of carpeting under the rear wheels can help get you started."

"3. Keep from getting stuck in the first place. Carry and use reinforced tire chains when the going gets tough."

"4. Once under way, stay steady. Avoid sudden changes in either speed or direction."

"5. If you start to skid, steer immediately in the direction the rear end is sliding. But don't oversteer. The instant you feel the car coming out of it, straighten the wheels to straight ahead."

"A common sense to keep your driving record accident free," Chief Veizer emphasized.

"Common sense beats guesswork and misconceptions, and these winter driving techniques are based on years of experimental driving and study. You'll make no mistake when you use them to help solve traction problems. They are worth clipping out of the paper for future reference."

Vadalabene Choice of Demo Organization

The executive committee of the Madison County Democratic Central committee, meeting in Wood River Monday night, gave its endorsement to the hotly-contested 33rd Senatorial district race to State Rep. Sam M. Vadalabene of Edwardsville and then pledged organization support of a full slate of Democratic candidates from the top of the state ticket on down.

As had been expected, the organization endorsement in the race for Democratic nomination as sheriff went to John Maerz of Madison County, incumbent county treasurer and a brother of Madison Mayor Stephen Maerz. Maerz is opposed in the March 17 primary bid for the sheriff's nomination by James Estes, highway commissioner of Chouteau township.

Walter T. "Buck" Simmons of Venice, chairman of the Democratic county committee, was given the endorsement as candidate for re-election as clerk of the Fifth District Appellate court, a position he now serves by appointment. The remaining four years of the unexpired term is subject to election this year, however, and Simmons is opposed for the Democratic nomination in the primary by Robert V. Walco of Mt. Vernon.

At the state and district levels, the committee's executive board announced endorsement of Adlai E. Stevenson III, of Chicago as the party's candidate for U.S. Senator, Alan J. Dixon of Belleville for state treasurer, Michael J. Bakalis of DeKalb for superintendent of public instruction, Cong. Melvin Price of East St. Louis for re-election as congressman of the 24th Congressional district, and George E. Shipley of Olney, for re-election as congressman of the 23rd Congressional district. All these candidates are unopposed in the primary.

Three incumbent Democratic officials seeking re-election, who also are without opposition, were endorsed by the committee. They are Miss Eulalia Hutz, Edwardsville, county clerk; Sheriff George Muson, Edwardsville, for county treasurer; and Wilbur Trimpe, for re-election as superintendent of the educational region.

In the three-way primary race for the two nominations as state representative of the 55th district the committee endorsed incumbent Joseph J. Kennedy of Alton and Horace Calvo of Granite City. Third candidate is David Partney of Granite City, son of Granite City Mayor Donald Partney. The 55th district includes the Quad-City area.

In 33rd District

Don Barry of Raymond and William H. Jenkins of Worlen were given the endorsement as candidates for state representatives in the 33rd district which includes part of Madison County. Two other candidates, Ken Boyle of Carlinville and Walter Mehl of Edwardsville, are seeking the two nominations.

The committee endorsed Christ Cossott of Madison and Ralph Elliott of Granite City, the only two candidates to file for representative committee of the 55th district, but also endorsed John Palovich of Wood River as a write-in candidate.

Parents of GC Pupils Face Truancy Charges

Parents of 12 students in the Granite City school district will appear in circuit court on Thursday, Jan. 29, in response to complaints filed against them, arising from their child's non-attendance at public school. It is believed the first time legal steps have been taken against local parents.

Notices to appear in circuit court to show cause why their children have not attended school were filed last week by Truant Officer C. A. MacMillan under the Illinois compulsory attendance statutes. All 12 cases will be heard in the court of Judge Andreas Matosian in Granite City.

Action was instigated against those parents whose children show a consistent pattern of non-attendance. MacMillan explained. Prior to the legal action, attempts were made to inform parents the importance of child attending school on a regular basis.

Letters notified parents that a non-attendance situation had developed with a child and were followed by a second letter requesting parents to take part in a counseling service with trained personnel from Co-Ordinated Youth Services.

If a parent continues to wilfully permit a child to remain out of school, school authorities are required to notify the probation office to institute proceedings, with the school attorney filing petitions in juvenile court, MacMillan said.

Parents or guardians of truant children are subject to fines, imprisonment, or both.

Program on Behavior Problems to be Featured

Enrollment in "See to Solve," a new Kete, Channel 9, television series on the behavior problems of elementary school children, is free to Channel 9 members. The 30-minute series will be presented on Channel 9 Thursdays at 3:15 p.m., beginning Feb. 5.

The series, of special interest to teachers and parents of elementary school children, will bring a multi-faceted approach to the problem behavior of children in kindergarten to sixth grade. A visual presentation of the behavior under consideration will be the introduction to a discussion of that behavior by a panel of specialists in the fields of psychology, psychiatry, social work, special education, and nursing. Members of the studio audience composed of teachers and counselors will then be given the opportunity to question members of the panel.

Some of the problems that will be examined in the series will include the shy child, the withdrawn child, the apathetic child, the anxious child, the aggressive child, learning disabilities, teacher responses, and parental involvement.

Non-Channel 9 members may enroll in the series by contributing ten tax-deductible dollars to public television and becoming Kete members. Persons interested in enrolling in the 16-week series, which is being produced in cooperation with Malcolm Bliss Mental Health Center and the Missouri State Division of Mental Health, should write: The Registrar, Kete, Channel 9, 8886 Millbrook, St. Louis, Mo. 63130.

Workshop is Planned On Conservation

Director William L. Rutherford of the Illinois Department of Conservation today urged high school students and adults to take advantage of workshops in conservation scheduled to be held soon in southern Illinois, sponsored by the Illinois Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

The workshop will be held at the SIU - Carbondale Outdoor Laboratory on Little Grass Lake near Carbondale Jan. 25-31 and Feb. 1-7 and 8-14.

The first two sessions are for high school students. Fifty students chosen by local sportsmen's clubs will receive a $40 room and board scholarship for each session. Workshops are sanctioned by the Illinois Department of Public Instruction and the Illinois high school association.

Teachers may attend the final session. The State Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs will sponsor 20 teachers and local sportsmen's clubs, civic groups and community organizations will sponsor another 30 teachers. Those who participate in the last workshop may receive two or three quarters of graduate credit.

The program, which will include classroom lectures and field demonstrations, will be conducted by SIU faculty and employees of the U. S. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and the Illinois Department of Conservation.

SIU'S Mobile Museum To be Ready next Week

Southern Illinois University - Carbondale campus will unveil its new Mobile Museum there Jan. 26 before university dignitaries and officials of the Illinois Central Railroad which is furnishing the "piggy-back" trailer housing the display.

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies will take place at 1:30 p.m. Darrel Harrison, curator, said, and invited guests will tour the Mobile Museum, inspecting its 15 mini-exhibits, many of which are backed up with slide shows, film and other informative and instructional materials.

The current display centers on science and technology. In succeeding years, completely new displays will be developed on agriculture and business, behavioral sciences, expression and communication, and higher education. Each is geared to the successive themes of the University's centennial period 1969-74.

The trailer will be stationed first at the University School on the campus and will be open for tours by school children and the general public Jan. 27-30. Thereafter, it will start its tour of southern Illinois schools.

Pay Boost for Student Workers

Student workers at SIU-SW campus will carry home bigger paychecks after Feb. 1, the result of a 15-cent an hour wage increase. The announcement was made by Walter Mehl, director of the Student Work and Financial Assistance Office.

The student wage hike is in compliance with the federal minimum wage law. The base pay rate now is $1.30 per hour at SIU-SW. More than 1200 students are in the work program at the campus and earned more than $46,000 last year.

Piano Recital Sunday At SIU-SW Theatre

Southern Illinois University pianist Marie Cambron will be presented in recital by SIU's Fine Arts Division Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Communications Building theater. The public is invited admission free.

Marion Merquardt Cambron joined the SIU-SW music faculty last fall. Since 1966 she had been at the faculty at Central Missouri State College. Mrs. Cambron received her bachelor's and master's degrees in piano from Julliard School of Music and a diploma from Mozarteum, Salzburg, Austria. Her doctorate was earned at the University of Michigan.

Students Hold 'Teach-In' on Pollutions

Preparations for an environmental teach-in are under way at the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

Concerned about air and water pollution in their local communities, a group of SIU-SW students and faculty are pooling their energies and resources to combat the problem and making plans to take part in a nationwide series of teach-ins on the environment scheduled for April 22.

The ad hoc committee for the Environment held a public meeting Tuesday in the Mississippi-Illinois rooms of the University Center to encourage active support from citizens in surrounding communities. Serving as temporary chairman of the environmental committee is Justin Frost, assistant professor of biology at SIU.

Initial plans call for a thorough survey of the Cahokia Creek drainage system which begins near the University, Frost said, the establishment of a bibliography and information center, and a look into state and federal pollution laws and their enforcement locally.

SIU-SW students Michael and Sandra Lee of Edwardsville attended a seminar on water pollution held in Chicago during the Christmas holidays under the sponsorship of the Department of Interior. They reported on the seminar Tuesday.

A movie illustrating the drainage basin approach was shown. Called Beargrass Creek, the movie shows the story of pollution in a tributary to the Ohio River.

Under the co-chairmanship of Senator Gaylord Nelson and Congressman Paul McCloskey Jr., the bipartisan National Teach-In committee is coordinating planned environmental activities at more than 100 campuses across the country. Each teach-in will emphasize local problems.

Other area schools participating in the national teach-in are Washington University, St. Louis University and the University of Missouri at St. Louis.

Cricket Roundup Staged Quickly at SIU-SW

It was like an old fashioned roundup at SIU-SW campus on Sunday, when the SIU security police and other school officials tried to "lasso" 4000 crickets escaping from the campus post office before they invaded other buildings.

Apparently the crickets arrived in a three-foot styrofoam mailing container and came out for fresh air. An emergency call went out to Delbert Varble, campus post office director, when the lower floor of the General Offices building began to rock to cricket music. He quickly wrapped heavy plastic around those lazy members of the herd which had not yet escaped.

Large vacuum cleaners and spray were used to secure the insects. Home for the escapees was Flukers Cricket Farm, Baton Rouge, La. They were to be food for lizards used by SIU associate professor Ralph Axtell in a research project.

Filmed Phrase Reading Program being Developed

A new phrase reading development program on film designed to help break down walls of frustration around pupils with reading problems has been announced at SIU-Carbondale campus.

Originator is Bruce Amble, associate professor of educational psychology on campus. He reported that in one research project working with culturally disadvantaged children, 35% more educational achievement was produced, with only two per cent of school time involved when compared with regular class curriculum.

Amble, who began working with the concept while a doctoral student at the University of Iowa in the early 1960's, continued the study when he joined the SIU faculty in 1965. He emphasized the program is a supplemental one and is not intended to replace regular reading studies.

He explained that the programs are presented on a series of ten separate 10-minute films, each designed to be shown two or more times during a training program. Each film contains 200 practice phrases, flashed on a screen long enough for the pupil to make single reading fixation.

Public Hearing On Levee Budget Scheduled Feb. 9

A public hearing on approval of the all-time record 1970 budget of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district has been scheduled for 10 a.m. Feb. 9 in the levee district offices at East St. Louis, it was announced yesterday.

The budget—calling for projected expenditures of $1,333,275 from the general revenue fund during the 1970 year—is now on file for public inspection at the district offices. The public hearing will be followed immediately by a special meeting of the levee board for approval of the measure. The new budget is an increase of $247,025 over that of last year.

The levee board also has called a special board meeting for Friday, Feb. 20 to adopt the 1970 tax levy, the announcements said. Approval of the tax levy will clear the way for the sale of tax anticipation warrants to provide funds for 1970 operations.

District officials said yesterday that the planned addition of $125,000 for four special projects proposed in the Jan. 7 meeting of the levee board, when the budget was given tentative approval, will be foregone since inspection of the budget figures reveal that the projects involved already had been included in the budget as originally drawn.

Quad-City Projects

The projects were set up by William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, Madison county's only representative on the present four-man levee board, who insisted the work is needed to prevent a repetition of flood damage inflicted on the Quad-City area by heavy rains in July last year. Chief among these is development of drainage facilities for the Dobey Slough area in Granite City and Nameoki township.

During the Jan. 7 meeting, board members agreed to include the $125,000 in work proposed by Ebersoldt in the budget in the public hearing before the budget is given final approval. Since then, district

'Y' Week Suggestion-- Do Exercises at Desk

"Executives, or anyone else who sits at a desk most of the day, can benefit from the eleven 'Y's' exercises given here," Forrest Cockrell, physical education coordinator of the Tri-City Area YMCA, said today. "And a good time to start would be Monday morning of YMCA Week, Jan. 26."

First presented by the Los Angeles "Y," the exercises are designed to do during "breaks" in the working day by the man who can't get to the YMCA or an athletic club for a full-scale physical fitness program.

Cockrell listed them as follows:

One, when the phone rings, pull in your abdomen and hold it during the conversation. Do not hold breath.

Two, cross legs. Rotate ankle and then flex and extend it. Curl toes and force heel downward. Change feet.

Eastler Seal Campaign Ok'd by GC Council

Permission was given the Madison County Easter Seal Society to conduct its annual door-to-door fund campaign through local volunteer workers March 4 to 8. The approval was given Monday night by Granite City council members.

The annual Lily Day, during which lily flowers are sold in shopping areas, will be held March 13 and 14 with high school students conducting the benefit sale.

Officials said, it has been determined that the work suggested by Ebersoldt already is included in budgeted project costs of the original appropriation draft.

Ebersoldt said he had no objection to eliminating a special addition to the budget, if the work is provided for, but that he will insist the work be outlined be undertaken in the Madison county section of the levee district during 1970, with the Dobey Slough project given top priority.

City Studying Proposed Traffic Pattern Changes

Granite City council members expressed keen interest in proposed downtown mail on Niedringhaus avenue from Cleveland blvd. to Edison avenue and the semiannual for three blocks of downtown 19th street during Monday night's council session.

The aldermen called for extra maps of the proposed changes in traffic patterns and were advised by Mayor Partney that Lt. William Cordis of the police department traffic division has a copy and is studying recommendations.

Mayor Partney said the Traffic committee of council, composed of Aldermen Samuel Whitmer, William Dallas and Everett Morley will be called upon to present recommendations to the city council.

As presented last week, the new traffic pattern would be four lanes for moving traffic, two lanes in each direction, on 20th street, Madison avenue and 18th street; two lanes of southbound traffic on Benton street that now is northbound, and northbound traffic on Cleveland blvd.

Delmar avenue would remain open for two-way traffic and State and Grand avenue would be converted to two-way, with parking limited to one side of the streets.

Edison avenue would remain two-way downtown, but a traffic cul-de-sac would close Edison avenue immediately north of 20th street, with the city hall to be approached on Edison avenue from the north.

3 Railroads File Objections to 7 City Tax Rates

Notice of objections being filed to certain city tax rates by three railroads was received Monday night by Granite City council members from County Clerk Miss Eulalia Hotz.

The notice was referred to City Treasurer E. R. "Pat" Rich, who said the objections were to the 1969 rates that already have been collected. "The collection of railroad tax payments is conducted by the county," he added.

Garage Break-In

The hap and luck was piled off the garage at the home of Charles Campbell, 2300 State street, and the handle of his 1965 van was torn off a door by a burglar who failed to get into the van, police reported about 7:30 a.m. Tuesday. Campbell told officers that apparently nothing was missing from the garage.

Industrial Building Tops 1969 Permits; Housing Down

Construction in the commercial-industrial field led new building activities in Granite City during 1969 as 438 permits listed values totaling $2,630,638.

The total was $8,100,988 below the previous year when construction was valued at $10,731,636, but that amount included more than $75 million for the St. Elizabeth Hospital addition, leaving $3,112,602 for other purposes.

Commercial-industrial construction showed a marked increase as 39 permits listed values of $1,212,848, compared to 67 and $834,527 in 1968.

Increasingly high interest rates caused a lag in new housing, as only one apartment project was started, at the Pontoon Plaza apartments at a cost of $130,000. Forty-four permits, including the one for the apartment structure, were issued for housing with values of $812,750, compared to 58 and $1,758,500 the previous year.

77 for garages and carports, $75,740; 186 for remodeling and repairs, $168,422; 29 for trailers, $217,000; and 13 miscellaneous, $141,766, including the $352,231, junior high school project.

Thirty permits were issued to raise structures at a cost of $27,000.

The top month of the year was July when 43 permits showed values of $575,015, including the A. O. Smith addition.

Only one month, November, failed to reach the $100,000 mark as 18 permits listed values of $47,214.

A month-by-month comparison of 1969 figures with those of 1968, listing the 1969 totals first, follows:

January, $115,240 and $236,309; February, $162,230 and $344,901; March, $234,615 and $285,047; April, $128,050 and $102,677; May, $241,552 and $82,725; June, $250,215 and $352,231; July, $575,015 and $65,015; August, $242,944 and $211,916; September, $206,463 and $501,453; October, $253,200 and $337,813; November, $47,214 and $476,334; and December, $173,450 and $7,043,924.

December Permits

The December totals were shown in 16 permits including eight for homes, $106,000, one addition, $600; three garages and carports, $1850; one remodeling-repairs, $1500; one commercial-industrial, $45,000; one trailer, $4500; and one miscellaneous, $6000. Four permits were issued to raise buildings at a cost of $5800.

Individual permits for the last half of December were obtained by:

Dr. J. C. Byers, one-room addition at 2317 Cleveland blvd., $800; Claude Downs, 2308 St. Clair avenue, storage and carport, $1200; and H. Jackson, 2205 Glen drive, a carport, $300. Henry Ross received a permit to raise a building at 3919 Namekoi road at a cost of $350.

Venice Police Report 39 December Arrests

A total of 39 arrests was made by the Venice police department during December, according to a report by Chief of Police John Essington, who said the city received $131 in fines from the circuit court in disposition of the cases.

Nine of the arrests were for violation of city ordinances, 19 were for violation of state laws and nine were arrested on traffic charges. Essington reported, "Two others were released without charges."

Car Battery Stolen

Mary Rigby, 516 Madison avenue, reported to Madison police Monday afternoon that the battery was stolen from her auto while it was parked at her home. The battery cables were cut to remove the battery, officers said.

1969 Venice Fire Loss Was $11.05 Per Capita

The Venice volunteer fire department responded to a total of 206 fire calls during 1969, including 31 residence fires, 19 alarms to commercial establishments and 29 truck and auto fires, according to an annual report to city officials.

The department reported it also answered alarms to 74 grass and rubbish fires, 19 tenailroad fires, four bridge fires, nine shed and garage fires, 19 out-of-town calls and answered eight rescue calls.

The report said the value of property involved in fire other than railroad property totaled $446,100, and that loss to real estate property amounted to $80,885. Value of contents involved in fire calls, also excepting railroad property, was $167,950, but loss was kept at $38,805, the report said.

This resulted in a total fire loss of $59,880 during the 1969 year, or a per capita fire loss of $11.05.

No Decision Yet On Extra Jobs by City Employees

Granite City council members indicated Monday night they have not yet decided if regular city employees can hold outside jobs—part-time, temporary or permanent.

However, an ordinance to give department heads authority to grant permission for outside employment was placed on first reading with only three dissenting votes. They were by Whitmer, Parmley and Jarrett.

Councilmen debated a suggestion by Mayor Parmley that the council shoulder the responsibility rather than the department heads, but the ordinance was not changed for first reading.

Whitmer recommended "one hard fast rule—either you can or can't hold any outside job instead of putting the department heads on the spot." Posters argued the department heads were paid to shoulder such responsibility.

Basarich was against any outside job, while Green said extra work should be permitted as long as the individual was efficient on the job.

Dallas noted that any decision by the department heads could cause dissention in the departments. He added that he had extra work should be permitted. "With the dangerous occupations of police and firemen, I definitely feel they are unqualified."

Nonn pointed out most city employees were given $75 monthly increase last year, and "we're giving them a living wage." He added that he saw no problems with such jobs as directing traffic at banks or handling crowds at athletic events, but that he has heard of objections to employees holding extra jobs in offices.

Another debate on the issue is expected at next week's council session.

SIU-SW Tutoring Service In Eagle Park Announced

A special tutoring service for Venice school youngsters residing in Eagle Park Acres started last week at the Quinlan Methodist Church, located in the unincorporated community south of Madison, Illinois.

The tutoring project is being sponsored by Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus and the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

Utter school board members were informed at their regular meeting Monday evening.

Utter said the concrete block structure, which remains unfinished due to lack of funds, would provide a social center for Eagle Park teenagers who currently gather at a privately-operated teen center in the community.

He commented that frequent fights and other incidents have occurred at a teen center, where activities of the young people cannot be supervised or restricted due to its privately-operated status.

"If we could complete the association's community center, it would allow us to hold dances and programs for the young people under proper supervision," Salmond said.

Board Secretary Fred Durer, who was acting president at the meeting, said, he understood that Board President Leo Davinorey has discussed the financial problem with area officials and plans shortly to instigate a benefit project to aid completion work at the center.

Durer noted that school funds may not be directed toward the project.

Credit Unions Chapter Elects New Officers

Officers for 1970 have been elected by the Southern Illinois Chapter of Credit Unions.

They are: Maurice Logan, treasurer of Miles Laboratories Credit Union, president; Joe Lucid, manager of the Granite City Steel Credit Union, first vice-president; Lionel Portt, treasurer of Granite City Steel Credit Union, second vice-president; George Jentsch of the Southern Illinois Directors Credit Union, third vice-president; and Mrs. Ruby Parker, N & W Credit Union, secretary-treasurer.

Eight-Week Pilot Project

The pilot project will last about eight weeks, by which time, Vickers said, the value of a proposal to expand the program to a second center in Venice will be determined. He said the children attend the special class each Tuesday from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Location of the project was set in the youngsters' home area, rather than transporting them same distance to the Venice public school on Broadway, he pointed out.

In a related matter, Eddie Lee Salmond, president of the Eagle Park Improvement Association,

Air Rule Would Forbid Visible Auto Exhaust

The Illinois Air Pollution Control Board has taken under advisement testimony presented in public hearings on two new series of antipollution regulations, one of which would control motor vehicle emissions and make it illegal for an auto or other vehicle to emit visible smoke.

The hearings were held in the University Center at Southern Illinois University's Southwest campus in two separate sessions, the first of which involved a new Illinois "alert" plan that would go into effect when air pollution builds to peak periods under unusual conditions. The plan is described as one of the most stringent programs offered in this phase of air pollution control and brought pronounced objections from industry.

The alert program is the first for this metropolitan area providing mandatory measures that would include ceasing, curtailing or postponing certain industrial operations, cancelling of interstate flights and prohibiting use of motor vehicles, except for emergency purposes, in times when air pollution builds reached dangerous health stages which are specified in the proposed regulations.

Could Close Business. John F. McLaughlin, Union Electric pollution engineer and president of the Industrial Waste Control Council, told the hearing that the plan as it is set up could lead to health hazard warnings "even though pollution concentrations were low."

McLaughlin said hazard warnings under the plan could create "a feeling of panic on the part of many people which may be completely unwarranted by actual conditions."

Only one witness appeared during the session on the proposed rule to ban visible exhaust emissions in Illinois, and car's anti-smog device.

Local Witness. The lone witness was Prof. Erwin C. Hoelscher, a professor of engineering at Washington University and technical secretary of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board. He told the board that the rule should apply to heavy off-highway construction equipment as well as to vehicles.

The proposed regulation which would apply to all of Illinois would prohibit visible exhaust from gasoline-powered vehicles. Diesel-powered vehicles would be limited to smoke of 20 percent density.

City's Bill List Totals $34,262; Sick Leave, $1396

A bill list totaling $34,262 and $1396 sick leave payment for two weeks were approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

The sick leave payments were made to four policemen, three street workers, two firemen and three city hall employees. It was noted there were no payments to employees at the sewage treatment plant.

Major items on the bill list included $4600 premium for employees' group insurance; $3017 paid to the engineering firm of Research Planning and Design associations for inspection and construction supervision of sewer repairs at Terrace lane, St. Clair, Wayne, Warren, Ford and Ball avenues.

From motor fuel tax refunds, payments were made to the engineering firm for two projects amounting to $2611, and to A. H. Seebold Co. for final amounts due on the two projects—$2740 for Michigan avenue and $6326 for Troy avenue.

The state highway department, in letters to the council, authorized the final payment on the two improvement projects. The total cost for improvement of Michigan avenue from Benton street to Troy avenue $23,781 and for Troy avenue from Michigan to Indiana avenue was $29,331.

200 Attend District Meeting of Eagles

Granite City Eagles Lodge 1126 was host to a district meeting this week with 200 members attending for an initiation ceremony and election of district officers.

Ritual work was conducted by the Granite City ritual team, including Jesse Brown, president; William Hemken, conductor; Felix Yost, past president; Carl Buehler, vice-president; and a d. Jesse Hadley, chaplain, for 20 Granite Cityans and two residents of Collinsville.

A welcome was given by Lodge President Thomas Rickert, and guest speakers were Yost, Jesse Brown and Willie (Red) McCauley of East St. Louis, a past grand worthy president.

McCauley commended the work of Robert Stanton, who obtained more than 2000 signatures and Charles Waldo, chairman of the committee on Law and Order, who assisted in obtaining more signatures to repeal a law concerning police arrest and investigations. Granite City had a total of 5000 signatures for this program.

Ralph Knippelkamp of Belleville was elected as president of the district for 1970.

The class of initiates was taken into the order in honor of Hubert Henrich, secretary of the Lodge and a past president. He was presented with a past president's diamond ring by Ray Trent.

Following the meeting, a luncheon was served and dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

D. D. Bridwell To Head Vadalabene Primary Campaign

D. Dean Bridwell, Edwardsville, has been appointed manager of the primary election campaign of State Rep. Sam M. Vadalabene, who is seeking nomination as state senator of the 53rd Senatorial district. The 33rd district includes the Quad-City area.

Vadalabene is opposed in the Democratic primary by Dick H. Mudge of Edwardsville, former state senator, and by Sam P. Drenauv of Chouteau township, in a three-way race for the one party nomination.

Incumbent State Sen. Merrill Orwein, Godfrey, is opposed for the Republican nomination.

In announcing Bridwell's appointment, Vadalabene cited his activity in civic and charity activities.

Bridwell said that Vadalabene's campaign will be issued.

Two Terms in House. "In his two terms in the House of Representatives Sam Vadalabene has proven to be an effective legislator," Bridwell said. "He has always represented the interests of the 53rd (representative) district most responsibly. More importantly, he has tried to do things for the good of citizens beyond the boundaries of his district."

"The work of the Obscenity Laws Study Commission, of which Rep. Vadalabene was chairman, resulted in new laws to protect children from obscene publications."

"His efforts on behalf of rural telephone subscribers played a large part in the recent orders of the Illinois Commerce Commission requiring companies to submit plans for extended area service and upgrading of multi-party lines," Bridwell added.

Waives Preliminary Hearings on 2 Charges

Manuel Slaughter Jr., 21, of Brooklyn, waived his preliminary hearings on theft and burglary charges in magistrate court Monday and bonds were set at $5000 on each count. He was charged in connection with a weekend break-in at Jiffy Car Wash, where two autos, a cash register and an electric buffer were reported taken.

Slaughter pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license and was fined $110 and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

REHEARSAL SESSIONS continued this week for Granite City high school band members in preparation for tonight's eight o'clock concert in the GCHS auditorium. Shown is part of the 125-member band which will perform under the direction of Louis Meek, conductor and Joseph Owens, assistant.

Venice Council Praised By Amvets Official

Amvets National Vice-Commander John C. Cain of Manchester, Mo., speaking at the Amvets Fifth Division meeting this week at Quad-City Amvets Post 51, commended the city of Venice for instituting by ordinance a program honoring deceased veterans of the Vietnam War by flying city flags at half mast.

Cain called for all communities throughout the U. S. to follow the same practice of honoring war dead and noted that letters urging Amvets to submit such proposals to their city councils have been sent to all Amvets posts.

The national vice-commander's remarks were made Sunday during a business meeting of Fifth Division representatives at the Post 51 clubhouse, 5100 Lakeview drive. Host for the all-day session was Madison Post 201.

Lester Williamson of Mt. Vernon, Fifth division commander, presided, with Amvets members authorizing a donation to help further a campaign about prisoners-of-war and missing-in-action in Vietnam. The local effort is being spearheaded by Mrs. Sandra (Noeth) Innes, whose Navy husband has been missing in action since December 1967.

Special guests, who contributed reports at the yesterday's meeting, included Illinois Amvets Commander Walter Dickerson of Peoria; Francis Kenna, National Amvets service officer, Mount Vernon; Don Russell of Springfield, Illinois vice-commander; Kenneth Schumacher, Mount Vernon, Post 4 commander; Leo Clements, Post 51 commander; Carl Angeloff, Post 204 commander; and Ben Sanders of Granite City, Fifth Division finance officer.

The state commander commended post in the Fifth Division for service projects conducted in the past year and announced a state executive board meeting in Peoria this weekend. The next Fifth Division meeting was scheduled for April 12 at Post 51.

About 100 attended the program, which concluded with a buffet dinner and dancing.

A. O. Smith Corp. Earnings Reach All-Time Record

Earnings of A. O. Smith Corp. reached an all-time high of $54 per share in 1969, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, announced at Boston on Monday.

Smith told a meeting of security analysts that the company earned $113,338,540 on sales of $254,518,304 last year.

This was a 25% increase in profits over 1968, when the company earned $114,493,013, or $4.68 per share, on sales of $272,797,673.

The company's previous earnings high of $53.26 per share was set in 1969.

Smith said 1969 proved to be one of the most productive years in the 35-year history of the diversified Milwaukee-based firm, and the fifth consecutive year of increasing profits. The firm operates an auto frame manufacturing plant here.

"Not only did our earnings reach a record, but A. O. Smith and its subsidiaries acquired four new companies and started three joint ventures. Sales of these new businesses will total more than $50 million in 1970," Smith said.

Smith told the analysts that 19 cents of 1969 per share earnings resulted from an accounting change in the company's automotive division. He pointed out, however, that 1969 earnings would still have been a record without the accounting change. The accounting change was responsible for boosting 1969 earnings after the $53.26 per share that had been predicted earlier.

Sales in 1969 were lower, Smith said, mainly because A. O. Smith transferred certain operations to affiliate companies. Sales of affiliates are not consolidated in A. O. Smith statements, although earnings are reflected on an equity in earnings basis.

Sales were also lower because the petroleum industry was down in 1969, Smith said. The company makes line pipe, oil well casing and meters for the petroleum industry.

In looking ahead, Smith told the analysts he felt the company was progressing toward its previously announced 1973 goals of nearly doubling 1968 profits, increasing 1968 return on equity by 30% to 40% and moving sales into the half billion dollar range.

A. O. Smith, with its subsidiaries, is a widely diversified manufacturer of auto and truck frames, electric motors, agricultural controls, meter systems, agricultural feed storage and handling systems, water heating equipment, elevators, pumps and irrigation systems and other products.

In other business transacted at the board meeting beginning at noon Monday at the YMCA, the officers were empowered to implement a House Committee recommendation submitted by Dulgeroff.

It is planned to replace the filter system in the indoor swimming pool at the YMCA.

As part of the observance of national YMCA Week Jan. 25-31, board members made plans to encourage local residents to utilize the facilities at some time during that week.

A joint reception is being planned for both the retiring priest, Rev. Engelbert Bienek, O.F.M., for Sunday, Jan. 25, from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the school hall, Ten-Ten street and Lee avenue. Parishioners and the public are invited to attend.

Rev. Motola was born in Chicago Heights, Ill., on Aug. 12, 1919, where he received his early education. Zoning Change Ok'd

An added stipulation for the builder to submit property drainage plans for a proposed new nursing home to the building department, city engineer and the plan commission of the Fifth Ward was inserted in an annexation and zone change ordinance adopted by Granite City council members Monday night.

The clause was added by Fifth Ward Alderman Norman, who on Nov. 23 stalled a hearing date before the City Plan Commission pending a study of drainage of the entire area.

The Plan Commission at its Jan. 8 session was advised there are three drainage areas in the area along Rock road in the area of Envue, Morgan and Roosevelt streets.

Morris Realty Co. is representing the developer of the proposed million-dollar 100-bed nursing home to be erected on a six-acre tract along Rock road and east of new Federal and Route 151.

The Plan Commission, at its Jan. 8 meeting, approved the firm's petition for zoning change from R-2 single family dwelling to R-4 for multiple occupancy and for the section of the tract outside the city limits to be annexed.

At the November council meeting, Norman complained that adequate drainage was needed for residents along Envue, Morgan and Roosevelt streets.

The clause he had inserted in the ordinance was for the plans and alterations and for the drainage of the property to be carried out at the contractor's expense.

Also approved was a zone change for Donald Adams of

Site for Nursing Home In W. Granite Annexed

Granite City Glass Co. for a C-4 commercial zoning designation for a sales office at 3732 Namepock road. The petition was approved by the City Plan Commission on Jan. 8.

Referred to the Plan Commission was a petition for a zoning change for property at 2161 Ponton road on the corner of Franklin avenue from R-2 single family dwelling to C-2 commercial.

In his petition, Anthony Vespi pointed out there are commercial establishments on the three other corners—a supermarket, a real estate—insurance office and a service station.

City Pays Two Claims Resulting from Falls

Payments of two claims against the city to two women injured in falls on city property were approved Monday night by Granite City council members and total $80. City Attorney Scroggins, in letters to the council, urged the aldermen to give serious consideration to the payments.

The payments were made to Mrs. Mary Jarvis, 2018 Elm street, $80, for doctor and hospital costs resulting from a fall on Sept. 29 when she stepped in a hole while walking to her car in the 2200 block of State street; and to Mrs. Ruth Lucas, 2419 Benton street, $39.50, for doctor and hospital bills resulting from a sidewalk fall Nov. 1 on 25th street between Benton street and Cleveland Blvd.

A $40 claim by Mrs. Jarvis for babysitting costs was not approved.

How to look for mortgage money and not find it.

By all means, go look for it yourself. Not all lending institutions are in the mortgage business. And in these days of tight money, not all of those that are have money to lend.

But there is mortgage money available, if you know how to find it. And the person who most often knows is your Realtor. He's a real estate professional who works in your best interests. He may know of a house for sale where you can assume the existing mortgage. Or he may know a lending institution with money available. Or a private investor who's interested.

If anybody in the world can help you find mortgage money, your Realtor can. So use him to your best advantage. That's what he's there for.

Your Realtor®

Somebody good to have working for you.

YMCA Now Registering Scuba Course Students

Registrations for a new skin and scuba diving course, scheduled to start next Monday evening at the Tri-Cities YMCA, presently are being accepted at the local "Y," or by calling course instructor, Jack A. Kiskisson, at 877-8698.

Kiskisson also will provide the same instruction for a series of classes at the new Edwardsville YMCA pool, starting Sunday afternoon. Both courses will run a period of eight consecutive weeks, with four-hour sessions held on a weekly basis.

Minimum age for those registering at the local YMCA is 16 years, Kiskisson said. Prospective students, men and women, may obtain additional information by contacting the instructor or attending the first session.

Fee for the course, including instructional material and use of equipment, is $30 per person for "Y" members and $40 for non-members. Kiskisson, a qualified instructor, will be assisted by members of the Bubblemasters Scuba Club of Granite City, donated equipment for use by students.

Chris Geroff, newly-installed Bubblemaster president, this week announced the appointment of Carl Krohn as club armstrong; C. M. "Whitey" Morrison, assistant armstrong; Neil Winters, civil defense coordinator; Barry Maycock, public relations director; and A. Kiskisson, training and safety officer.

At a meeting last week, the club accepted three new members — Mark Helrich, Joe Grizzard and Den Davis, Geroff announced. Other newcomers to the club, initiated last month, were Rex Waggoner and Donald DiGirolamo.

Bubblemasters who agreed to take part in a civil defense training program through which instruction will be given in radiological monitoring by the Granite City civil defense corp, include Terry and Larry Keenon, Mike Henderson, Ron Wilson, Helen Graber, Bob Fry, Jeannine Helrich, Roy Boyle, Ron Kibort and the club president.

The Red Cross course began last week at CD headquarters, 1411 Nineteenth street.

City's MFT Funds 'Spent For Months to Come'

Granite City is expected to have $375,000 in motor fuel tax funds by next May, the city council was informed Monday night by the MFT engineering firm of Research Planning & Design Associates.

The city currently has a balance of $275,005, with a December allotment of $41,472. The engineering firm noted that plans now are under way for development of next summer's MFT street maintenance program, estimated at $100,000, and that for the Johnson road improvement from Franklin avenue to Pontoon road, the estimate is $240,000, for a total of $340,000.

A 1968 model auto which had been stripped of its coil wires, plug wires, battery and right rear tire and wheel was recovered by Venice police about 7:20 p.m. about an hour and half before the car was reported stolen by its East St. Louis owner.

Venice officers said the thief also apparently dumped about two pounds of sugar in the gas tank of the car, which was found in a weed patch along County road, with the hood up, while the substance was found nearby.

While police were checking identification of the owner, LeMadre H. Wharton of East St. Louis reported theft of the auto about 9 p.m.

2,375,000 Licenses; Display Deadline Near

A little over three weeks remain for motorists to get their 1970 license plates mounted on their vehicles, Secretary of State Paul Powell pointed out today.

The deadline for displaying the 1970 plates is midnight Sunday, Feb. 15. The plates must be on the vehicles by that time, Powell warned, not merely applied for or being carried inside the car.

Motorists urged to submit their applications without delay, adding that processing time plus the fact that the plates are third-class mail may result in an interval of two or three weeks between receipt of application and delivery of the plates.

For motorists planning to buy their plates at the Secretary of State's office over-the-counter facilities in Springfield and Chicago, Powell said this is a good time to do so. These outlets are not being used to capacity at present, and there is virtually no waiting in line. Registration for 1970 at present totals 2,375,000, an increase of 100,000 over the same time a year ago.

Partney Pledges Independence in Legislative Bid

David Partney of Granite City, Democratic candidate for state representative of the 55th District, declared in a campaign statement today that he is seeking office independent of any affiliation with other political groups or factions, and pledged his efforts, if elected, to "diverting wasteful spending to areas of construction rather than destruction."

Partney charged that under present political patterns the public receives too many additional services, costing additional money, that "afford little more than a lot of political patronage jobs."

Referring to a program of national spending in which, he said, the Pentagon rather than the White House is calling the shots, Partney said that well-known government programs "have destroyed the dignity of hundreds of thousands of our potentially good citizens."

He said years have become so disenchanted that thousands "have virtually destroyed themselves with dope and drug addiction."

Partney said: "Politicians keep saying the public demands more and more services, yet we can hardly fail to notice that many of the services afford little more than a lot of political patronage jobs. Many programs, far too many, are aimed at correction rather than prevention. It seems that far too many programs for the poor are aimed at keeping them indebted to the politicians."

Partney said, rather than providing painful employment which would add to self-respect and dignity.

"Public 'Lost in Dust' "It stands to reason that after the same faction has stayed in power for so many years, the power structure becomes smaller and smaller; therefore, more and more people become indebted to fewer and fewer political dictators and the public has been lost in the dust of the machine."

"Remember the politicians who are now in office are largely responsible for our loss of national pride. You local officials support the national officials, but all start or stop with your vote. I pledge that I am strictly independent. I pledge to help restore human dignity by diverting wasteful spending to areas of construction rather than destruction. I pledge to fight for a reconstruction of our legal system so that it is for the public rather than for hoodlums or millionaires. I pledge to be honest to, for, and with you at all times."
